

4th - 16th December 2007 The Gallery in Redchurch St

Punctum opens on December 4th with an explosion of fresh ideas on moving image art; ground-breaking new art works set to challenge the position of video in the art world. Curated by The Video Art Gallery, Punctum shows video art works inspired by traditional art forms side-by-side with works on canvas and paper that have taken video art as their starting point. Artists include Jonathan Moss, Chris Meigh-Andrews, Silvia Battista, Laurent Pernot, and John Blandy

The Video Art Gallery, the UK's only commercial gallery exclusively representing moving image art. It was set up in 2007 and runs a programme of screenings, events and exhibitions across London. The Video Art Gallery represents contemporary video artists, offering their work for sale in DVD format.

More information can be found at www.thevideoartgallery.com or on 020 8692 4669.

The Gallery in Redchurch St

50 Redchurch Street, London, E2 7DP

the video art gallery

www.thevideoartgallery.com